Hearing something that sounded like the popping of matchheads on the southwest corner of the courthouse block, the Star reporter yesterday afternoon went over there to see what was the occasion. He found Marshal Carter with a 22 rifle trying to thin out a swarm of English sparrows which had taken possession of the trees around the monument. Mr. Carter hulled a bird at every shot, but after pegging away almost an hour, using a box of cartridges and finding the sparrows as thick as ever, he gave it up.

MOVING PICTURE FEATURES

that the picture is one of the most finished he has ever made. The story has to do with the step-daughter of a society matron who candidly explains that she intends to exploit her daughter's beauty in the marriage market. The marriage market with its shallow veneer of modern dress and modern manners but with an amazing similarity of spirit to the old "slave market," only perhaps a little competition. The step-daughter solves the difficulty with a great sacrifice that leads to happiness.

Tomorrow there will be another Keystone comedy, and another installment of "The Girl and the Game."

ANTHONY, SUNBEAMS

Anthony, Sept. 21.—The Anthony Sunbeam Society meets every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church. There is a total enrollment of 55 members with an average attendance of twenty. The devotional exercises of our society are always good and all members present take part. The singing is especially fine. The music is rendered by several members that can play, each one being organist one month at a time. One thing that increases zeal is the socials that we have every month. The last social was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Connell. Ice cream and cake were served. As winter advances we are planning great things for our society. We have already begun making quilts for the orphanages at Enterprise and Arcadia. The boys are going to see that a nice box accompanies the quilts. There is a lively interest manifested in a contest for the testaments to be given by a friend on Thanksgiving to the one who repeats a verse of scripture at roll call. If you do not believe we are doing a great work, drop in some Sunday afternoon and see.

Clarence P. Priest, Press Sec'y.
